

Stafford Family

Compiled by Bruce A. Fowler
Hartland Historical Society ~ 2013 (Updated May 24, 2024)

Solomon Stafford

s/o John Stafford & Barbara Stanton

b. 22 Jan 1785 Guilford, Vermont (Hartland Vital Records as 5 Jan 1782)

d. 23 May 1851 Hartland (Ireland Cemetery) Stone engraved æ 66yrs

m. 5 Oct 1806 Greene (marriage intentions filed as noted in Greene Vital Records)

Anna Thompson

d/o Richard Thompson & Elizabeth Ricker

b. 16 May 1793 Wales (Hartland Vital Records as 14th day, no month, 1791)

d. 23 Mar 1865 Hartland (IC w/Solomon) Stone engraved æ 72yrs

He came from Vermont to Greene as a young man possibly joining his older brother John Stafford who was noted living there in the 1800 Census. Anna's family lived in neighboring Wales and following their marriage, she and Solomon were living in Greene in C/1810 before moving north with their family to North Hill by C/1820. They moved to North Hartland sometime in the mid-1820s living there in C/1830 where they settled on the Athens Road at the corner of the Old Ferry Road near what would become known as Stafford Pond. They remained in North Hartland noted there with some of their children in C/1840 & C/1850. Following Solomon's death, Anna was listed in C/1860 in the household of their son John N. Stafford in North Hartland at 68yrs old.

"North Hill was settled in 1801 and incorporated as a town on June 20, 1816 from the township T2-R1 BKP (Bingham's Kennebec Purchase aka 'Million Acres Range'). It changed its name to Brighton on January 29, 1827. The town ceded land to Athens in 1838 and again in 1862. In 1895 Brighton surrendered its organization as a town and reemerged as Brighton Plantation." ~ Maine Encyclopedia

"Solomon Stafford came to Hartland from Brighton about 80 years ago, and settled near Stafford pond which took its name from him. His children were Nelson, Jacob, Orin, Joel, Harrison, Johnson, Elias, Leonard, Richard, Albion, Martha m. Towle." (Missing are Elizabeth & John) ~ 1911-1912 East Somerset County Register

An early Hartland Vital Record entry notes a partial record of the family at the time with some of the older children's names and birth dates but no birth locations. Their children's birth locations are based on circumstantial evidence including Census locations noted above and their son Orin's death certificate listing his place of birth as Brighton (North Hill) in 1813. Their son Nelson's presumed death in Hartland in 1826 circumstantially implies they were living there by that date. (See bottom for original)

Ch. STAFFORD:

1. Elizabeth Stafford

b. 14 May 1807 Greene

d. 20 Feb 1844 Harmony (Ireland Cemetery as Elizabeth Dore) at 36yrs

"He began teaching school at the first schoolhouse in Neillsville at the age of 18 years and afterwards studied one year at Galesville University. In 1861 he and a partner established the Union & Flag Journal in Neillsville which he published for several years before opening the Clark County Journal in 1867. He took an active part in local politics, was Chairman of the County Board, and County Superintendent of Schools for the term of ten years. He was also a member of the State Board of Agriculture for three years. After selling his paper he purchased a 400 acre lot on Pleasant Ridge in Grant, Wisconsin where he built his house and farm; later known as the Youmans Farm.

He also went into the lumber business, but that proved a failure, and broken in health and finances he moved to Fresno, California in 1883. There he purchased land in the Bank of Central California tract which is now known as West Park. He steadily improved this tract and at the time of his death owned one of the most fertile vineyards in this section of the state becoming one of the leading vineyardists of central California.

He was a diligent laborer for the upbuilding of the viti-cultural and horticultural interests of the community and was one of the first shippers of green fruit out of Fresno County. He joined the Farmers' Alliance in 1890 and attended the first state meeting in San Jose in November of the same year. He was chosen Chairman of the Executive Committee and always took an active part in the work of the Alliance and in public life."
